

Name _____

Luna Moth Quiz

1. In North America, Luna moths are usually found _____.
 - a. in forested areas on the East coast
 - b. close to the Pacific Ocean
 - c. near Alaskan glaciers
 - d. in the deserts of the Southwest

2. As a caterpillar, the Luna moth eats _____.
 - a. other insects
 - b. tree roots
 - c. fruits
 - d. leaves

3. Luna moths do not eat because they _____.
 - a. are too busy flying around
 - b. do not have mouthparts
 - c. drink only water
 - d. are gathering pollen

4. Adult Luna moths live _____.
 - a. three months
 - b. until the first frost
 - c. about one week
 - d. only in the summer months

5. Male Luna moths have _____.
 - a. white and red wavy lines on their wings
 - b. feathered antennae
 - c. wing patterns that resemble leopard spots
 - d. knobbed antennae

6. Female Luna moths attract males by _____.
 - a. releasing pheromones
 - b. producing mating sounds
 - c. displaying their brilliant colors
 - d. flying in special patterns

7. Luna moth cocoons are made of _____.
 - a. bark
 - b. chitin
 - c. mud and wood
 - d. silk and leaves

Name _____

Luna Moth Quiz – Answer Key

1. In North America, Luna moths are usually found _____.
 - a. in forested areas on the East coast
 - b. close to the Pacific Ocean
 - c. near Alaskan glaciers
 - d. in the deserts of the Southwest

2. As a caterpillar, the Luna moth eats _____.
 - a. other insects
 - b. tree roots
 - c. fruits
 - d. leaves

3. Luna moths do not eat because they _____.
 - a. are too busy flying around
 - b. do not have mouthparts
 - c. drink only water
 - d. are gathering pollen

4. Adult Luna moths live _____.
 - a. three months
 - b. until the first frost
 - c. about one week
 - d. only in the summer months

5. Male Luna moths have _____.
 - a. white and red wavy lines on their wings
 - b. feathered antennae
 - c. wing patterns that resemble leopard spots
 - d. knobbed antennae

6. Female Luna moths attract males by _____.
 - a. releasing pheromones
 - b. producing mating sounds
 - c. displaying their brilliant colors
 - d. flying in special patterns

7. Luna moth cocoons are made of _____.
 - a. bark
 - b. chitin
 - c. mud and wood
 - d. silk and leaves